Prorogation of Parliament till July 21.

By the Lord Lieutenant.

BIBLIOTHECA BODLEIANA

ORMONDE.

WHEREAS the preſent Parliament is adjourned until the five and twentieth day of this preſent May: And whereas for ſundry good Cauſes and Conſiderations, I the ſame thought it conſiderable and neceſſary to prorogue the ſaid Parliament until the Five and twentieth day of July next, I do therefore will and require all perſons to whom it doth or ſhall appertain, to take due notice thereof, to the end that in the mean time they may repair to their Houſes, or otherwiſe apply themſelves about their private Affairs at their pleaſures, and then to give their attendance here again at the day and time aforeſaid in the uſual place appointed for that intended Service, wherof they may not fail.
